ORDER

Plaintiff Kenyatte Lyles (“Plaintiff”), proceeding pro se, brought this action pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1964 alleging violations of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (“RICO”) Act. (ECF No. 1.) Plaintiff originally brought this action in the Northern District of Georgia, and it was transferred to this Court on December 1, 2017. (ECF No. 9.) The matter is now before the Court for review of the Report and Recommendation (“Report”) of United States Magistrate Judge Jacquelyn D. Austin recommending that the Motion to Dismiss filed by Defendant Chandra Grant and Defendant Tyanna Hardy be granted pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) due to a failure to prosecute. (ECF No. 54). The Report was issued in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B) for the District of South Carolina.

Magistrate Judge Austin issued the Report on April 13, 2018. (ECF No. 54.) The Magistrate Judge advised Plaintiff of the right to file objections to the Report, the procedures and requirements for filing objections to the Report, and the serious consequences if he failed to do so. (ECF No. 54-1). As of the date of this Order, Plaintiff has filed no objections and the time for doing so has expired.

The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this Court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight. The responsibility for making a final determination remains with this Court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270 (1976). The Court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the Report or may recommit the matter to the Magistrate Judge with instructions. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). In the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005). Furthermore, failure to file specific written objections to the Report results in a party’s waiver of the right to appeal from the judgment of the District Court based upon such recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); see Wells v. Shriners Hosp., 109 F.3d 198, 200 (4th Cir. 1997) (“[t]he Supreme Court has authorized the waiver rule that we enforce... ‘[A] court of appeals may adopt a rule conditioning appeal, when taken from a district court judgment that adopts a magistrate’s recommendation, upon the filing of objections with the district court identifying those issues on which further review is desired.’”) (citing Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 155 (1985)).

After a thorough review of the record, the applicable law, and the Report, the Court finds the Magistrate Judge’s recommendation to be proper and has determined that there is no clear error on the face of the record. Accordingly, the Court adopts the recommendation and incorporates the Report herein by specific reference. For the reasons articulated by the Magistrate Judge, it is hereby ordered that the Plaintiff’s action be dismissed without prejudice as to Defendants Chandra Grant and Tyanna Hardy.

ORDERED, that the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation is adopted as the order of this court, and this action is hereby dismissed without prejudice as to Defendants Chandra Grant and Tyanna Hardy.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
